DETAILED ACTION

The outstanding rejection have been withdrawn in view of Applicant's amendments.

Upon reconsideration, the following rejection under section 112, second paragraph is now entered:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 8 10 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims recite that "said hydroxyl group-containing vinyl ether containing at least one compound selected from the group consisting of . . . [compounds of formulas 4, 5 and 6]. If the formulas 4, 5 and 6 are the hydroxyl group-containing vinyl ether compound of formula 2, then it is unclear how the structures of formulas 4, 5 and 6 conform to the hydroxyl group-containing vinyl ether compound of formula 2. Alternatively, if the hydroxyl group-containing vinyl ether compound of formula 2 comprises compounds of formulas 4, 5 and 6, then the structure of the resulting hydroxyl group-containing vinyl ether is unclear.

An updated search of the prior art has necessitated the following rejections:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Trofimov et al., Zhurnal Organicheskoi Khimii (1982), 18(3), 528-31.

The above reference teaches the following reaction that anticipates the claimed reaction:

See attached CAS online citation [retrieved 12 November 2006] in STN, Columbus OH, USA.

Art Unit: 1621

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kartashova et al., Osn. Organ. Sintez i Neftekhimiya, Yaroslavl (1989), (25), 42-6.

The above reference teaches the following reaction that anticipates the claimed reaction:

See attached CAS online citation [retrieved 12 November 2006] in STN, Columbus OH, USA.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 10 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Trofimov et al., Zhurnal Organicheskoi Khimii (1982), 18(3), 528-31 or Kartashova et al., Osn. Organ. Sintez i Neftekhimiya, Yaroslavl (1989), (25), 42-6 in view of Kirk Othmer (of record).

Art Unit: 1621

The rejected claims cover those embodiments covering lower oxygen content during the production of the recited vinyl ether group-containing (meth)acrylic esters. However, those of ordinary skill would expect that the oxygen content of those distillation columns and purification devices which are conventional for the purification of acrylic acid derivatives, as taught by Kirk Othmer, would be well within the decreased values required by the claims. As of yet, there is no evidence on record to the contrary. See MPEP 2112 ("[T]he PTO can require an applicant to prove that the prior art products do not necessarily or inherently possess the characteristics of his [or her] claimed product. Whether the rejection is based on 'inherency' under 35 U.S.C. 102, on 'prima facie obviousness' under 35 U.S.C. 103, jointly or alternatively, the burden of proof is the same...[footnote omitted]." The burden of proof is similar to that required with respect to product-by-process claims. In re Fitzgerald, 619 F.2d 67, 70, 205 USPQ 594, 596 (CCPA 1980) (quoting In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 1255, 195 USPQ 430, 433-34 (CCPA 1977)).").
